

Alpha Delta Pi

BE THE FIRST

LIVE YOUR OATH TABLING GUIDE

Learn more about the Live Your Oath campaign by navigating to our website.

Marketing and branding toolkit including templates is available on Pride Online.

Before the Tabling Event

WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHY

- Who
 - Announce at a chapter meeting that you are hosting a tabling event and ask for volunteers!
 - Ensure that members know what to wear, have a clear understanding of the campaign, any activities you will be doing, etc.
 - If you have both ADPi and SigEp chapters on your campus, table together!
- What
 - What activities are you planning?
 - What printing needs to be done?
 - What can you encourage members to wear at the table?
 - What resources (offices) on campus can you reach out to for promotional materials or handouts?
- Where
 - Pick the date, time, and location that is most relevant to your campus. Be sure to fill out any reservation forms, etc.
- Why
 - Be clear about why you are tabling
 - Navigate to the ADPi Website or Pride Online for additional resources and information

GETTING THE TABLE READY

- Plan what your table is physically going to look like
 - Pull out that ADPi table cloth, give it a steam, and set up any materials for activities.
 - Do a trial run of the table, set it up like the day of, take a picture, and keep all the materials in one box for your team to grab and set it up!
- Advertise ahead of time when and where you will be on social media

During the Tabling Event

SUGGESTED TABLING ACTIVITIES

- Invite members of campus to sign a Live Your Oath pledge card & display them
 - Take a picture of each person with theirs for social media content!
 - Be sure to ask participants if they are comfortable with you posting on social media before doing so
 - If you don't want to print a lot of copies, laminate a couple of pledge cards and have people sign them with a dry erase marker

- Create a larger, interactive banner to draw in participants. Banner prompts could include:
 - What does “Live Your Oath Mean to You?”
 - How do you support victims/survivors of sexual assault?
 - Leave a supportive message to victim/survivors
- Hand out campus based resources including reporting mechanisms, counseling center information, survivor support options on campus
 - Reach out to these offices to see if they have materials that you can hand out
- Have a takeaway that participants can leave with
 - A paper pledge card
 - Campus resource flyers
 - QR code with reporting methods specific to your campus

After the Tabling Event

POST TO SOCIAL MEDIA

- Post pictures of your tabling event, activities, and participants of your tabling event to your social media accounts (if they give permission to do so)
- Post campus related resources if you have not already

DEBRIEF AT CHAPTER

- Thank everyone for the success of the event, ask for feedback on ways to improve, and allow for any remaining questions about the campaign

REMIND MEMBERS OF NATIONAL RESOURCES

- National Sexual Assault Hotline
 - 1-800-656-4673 (HOPE)
 - Chat Support
- National Domestic Violence Hotline
 - 1-800-799-7233
- National Suicide Prevention Lifeline
 - 1-800-273-8255
 - Text to 988
- The Trevor Project (Support for LGBTQ+ students)
 - 1-866-488-7386
 - Online Chat
 - Text: Text “START” to 678-678
- Strong Hearts Native Helpline
 - 1-844-762-8483 (7-NATIVE)